

Phrasal Verbs Worksheet

Exercise one: Put the correct phrasal verb in the correct blank:

Pointed out	took place	fit in with	catch up with
looking forward	find out	dressed up	gives away

1. The American Elections _____ on November the twenty-fifth.
2. How else can you _____ how the other person feels?
3. Do these plans _____ your arrangements?
4. He was excited to see his daughter _____ for her graduation party.
5. He _____ the benefits/importance of daily exercise.
6. "I'll _____ you," Jule promised.
7. I'm terrible at keeping secrets. My face goes beet red and _____ me every time.
8. Khalid lost his job due to the pandemic but now he's _____ to starting his new job.

Exercise two: Decide whether the phrasal verb in each sentence is a transitive or intransitive.

1. I'm too close to my goal to give up now. I will be persistent and never stop.
2. I invited my cousins to the party, but they turned me down.

3. Watch out for whatever comes out from your mouth. You are always responsible for what you say.
4. Our English class is always exciting which makes everybody like to join in this class.

Exercise three: Are these phrasal verbs separable or inseparable?

1. Help me set up the table, will you?
2. The door opened and closed so quietly that I didn't notice he had come in the room.
3. If he didn't bring up the subject again, then leave him and don't insist.