

Title:	Author:
Speaker: •Who is narrating, describing, or arguing?
Occasion: •What is the context (time and place) that prompted the writing? •What is the "larger" occasion and/or the "immediate" occasion that influenced the writer?
Audience: •Who does the author intend to address in this piece? One specific person, a targeted group, or a general audience? •HOW do you know?
Purpose: persuade, inform, or entertain •What is the author arguing? •What does the author want his audience to feel/experience? •What is the author's reason for writing this piece? •HOW do you know?
Subject: •What is the general TOPIC or focus of the piece?
Tone: •What is the attitude that this author presents about his subject toward his audience? HOW do you know?

- | | | | | |
|---|---|---|--|--|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Admonishing • Adoring • Affectionate • Ambiguous • Amused • Annoyed • Anxious • Appreciative • Apprehensive • Biting • Bitter • Cheerful • Cheery | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Comforting • Comic • Commanding • Depressed • Despairing • Desperate • Detached • Diffident • Effusive • Elated • Elevated • Familiar • Giddy | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Gloomy • Grand • Hilarious • Hopeful • Hopeless • Humorous • Impartial • Impassioned • Impassive • Impatient • Joyful • Lively • Loving | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Outspoken • Powerful • Resigned • Respectful • Ridiculous • Seductive • Selfish • Sentimental • Serious • Stable • Tender • Tense • Thoughtful | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Threatening • Tragic • Uncertain • Unconcerned • Uneasy • Vibrant • Vindictive • Vitriolic • Whimsical • Wistful • Worshipful • Wrathful • Zealous |
|---|---|---|--|--|

Circle: Character Traits and Characteristics
Outside the circle: Evidence from the text

What does the character reveal about themselves at the beginning of the story? Give examples.

BUT THEN – what happens to change the character?

Characterization:

How does the character change as the plot moves toward resolution?