

Spelling lesson 10
Write the words depending of the meaning

not likely to happen, be done, or be true; improbable. "an ___ explanation" having a useful purpose. "___ activities" kept specially for a particular person. "a ___ seat" when someone is describing something sweet or charming, like a baby or a pretty dress.
the quality of being kind, tender, or mild-mannered. "Michael was admired for his ___ and tolerance" a feeling of great surprise or wonder. "she shook her head in ___" shining brightly with flashes of light. her ___ blue eyes" (of a person) without a home, and therefore typically living on the streets. "the plight of young ___ people" a feeling of great enthusiasm and eagerness. "her cheeks were flushed with ___" a number of miles travelled or covered. "the car is in good condition, considering its ___"	