

DRAG AND DROP

EIDGAH

DRAG AND DROP THE OPT WORD

The village was with excitement. Everyone was up early to go to the Eidgah. The boys were more than the others. They had been talking about it all the time. Finally the day had come. And now they were impatient. They were taking their out of their pockets, counting and recounting it before putting it back. Mahmood counted "One, two, ten, twelve" – he had coins. Mohsin had "One, two, three, eight, nine, fifteen" coins. With this money, they would buy things: toys, sweets, paperpipes, rubber balls – and much more.
