“Blood to Bleed”

by Rise Against

‘I don’t love you anymore’ is all I remember you telling me

Never have I felt so cold

I have no more blood to bleed

As my heart has been draining into the sea

Since I’ve taken your footsteps

Getting me closer to what is left

Of the dreams of what I once claimed to know

Within my bones this resonates

Boiling blood will circulate

Could you tell me again 5 _____ ?

‘I don’t love you anymore’ is all I remember you telling me

Never have I felt so cold

I have no more blood to bleed

As my heart has been draining into the sea.
