

Odorono

She sang the best she..... ever.....

She couldn't ever sing any better

But Mister Davidson never rang

She knew he would forget her

She..... him there

And put herself to ransom

He

He really was quite handsome

She really her best

She couldn't ever look any better

But she knew she.....the test

She knew he would forget her

Triumphant! was the way she felt

As she acknowledged the applause

Triumphant! was the way she.....
When she saw him at the dressing room door

She was happier than she..... ever

As he praised her for her grace
But his expression changed, she
As he leant to kiss her face

It ended there
He claimed a late appointment
She quickly turned
To hide her disappointment

She ripped her glittering gown
Couldn't face another show, no
Her deodorant her down
She should have used Odorono
