

HOMEWORK 2. Write four sentences about things your school does or could do to help the environment. In two of the sentences, use so, and in the other two, use such.

What's the difference? ^{such} _{so}

so

so + adjective

correct: She is so pretty.

Their house is so big.

This is so amazing!

incorrect: She is so pretty woman.

Their house is so big building.

such

such + a/an + adjective + noun correct: He is such a handsome man.

They have such a big house.

This is such an amazing idea!

incorrect: He is such handsome.

Their house is such big.

ACTIVITY 2. Match the sentences with the pictures.

WORD BANK

A) My school is such as an ecological institute that it has many trash cans.

B) It is so important to apply a recycling program.

C) Teaching recycling with the example is such a great idea.

D) My school is eco-friendly so that we recycle plastic bottles.

