Listen to a missing word, choose its English equivalent and type it in Russian.

1. Today's elections are thus not merely "sham" elections - they are a calculated_____, designed to throw a wrench in the peace process and prolong the suffering of the Syrian people. _____

2. We must_____ the complete elimination of nuclear weapons through multilateral agreements. _____

3. The truck drivers often have to_____ when they turn right because they simply cannot see what is there. _____

4. The following day, Sudanese Armed Forces aircraft dropped three bombs in the vicinity of the _____. _____

5. Thirdly, it is wholly inappropriate _____Governments to revisit issues already addressed and agreed upon in the Charter of the United Nations. _____

6. The Investigation Department is competent to conduct inquiries in places where the members of a police service work and may _____objects and documents that may be useful to the investigation. _____

7. The urgent necessity is clearly to stop the _____ and to secure the population's access to humanitarian aid. _____

8. The Government committed to fully investigate the cases; however, the _____of these investigations is pending. _____

9. At around 09:00 local time, a vehicle_____ entered the Joint Operational Mechanism base that housed members of the Malian Army and former militants who had signed a peace agreement with the government. _____

10. It was the first time that an international inspection regime was authorized to destroy, _____ remove all facets of a country's proscribed chemical, biological and missile programs and to conduct subsequent monitoring to deter their revival. _____

11. We will deal later in this report with the probability that _____was found during the night or at dawn. _____

12. The army chief of staff recently said that in East Timor it is the_____, not the armed resistance, that is the main security threat. _____

13. The Secretary-General, for instance, might _____that the situation in the Central African Republic was becoming critical. _____

14. The Government of the fictional country Norland has unleashed a war with the neighboring Galikania and is suffering one _____after another. _____

15. Otherwise, there was a risk of incidents which could_____ the image and effectiveness of the Organization. _____

16. Another option for the Allies was to land the army under the cover of a bombardment by the fleet on the isthmus dividing Cádiz from the mainland; from there, the troops could_____ the city. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

17. The declining prospects for economic growth, especially in the developed countries, continue to _____the fragile recovery from the world financial and economic crisis. _____

18. One of these provisions suggests that there must be an emergency _____for opening the emergency door. _____

19. From that time on, the lawful seat of China at the United Nations should_____ the People's Republic of China. _____

20. It's missing a time stamp, which means _____ is being held in violation of Habeas Corpus statutes. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS