Fill in the gaps! Choose the best option to make the sentences right!

Christmas in Hungary

In Hungary people _____the Christmas tree on Christmas Eve. Sometimes only the adults decorate the tree so when children come in and see the tree, it's a great _____. In addition to the usual decorations, we also put _____on and under the tree. In Hungary, _____is very important and is called 'Szent-este' which means Holy Evening. People spend the evening with their family and have dinner together. Children wait outside the room where the tree is and when they hear _____ringing, they can enter and the presents await them under the Christmas tree.

In Hungary the baby Jesus brings the presents for the children. Santa Claus comes on December 6 bringing sweets and presents for those _____ children who put their clean shoes on the _____the night before.

Typical Hungarian Christmas dishes are: fish soup,_____, roast turkey with_____, and the famous _____or walnut rolls known as bejgli.

