

UNIT 5 "ANIMAL RIGHTS"

Vocabulary test in English/15

1.Fill in the gaps with the appropriate words that are given: awareness, natural habitat, carbon footprint, pesticides and fertilizers, poaching, sustainable, intervention, biodiversity, contamination, volunteers, deforestation, donate, pollutants, penalties, poached, extinct

All species of animals are important to ensurein the ecosystem and not to disturb the balance in the ecosystem. A major threat for endangered species is.....; illegal hunters kill animals for their skin. Another cause is destruction of animal's.....by forests fires and.....

Animals are also threatened by pollution and.....of rivers by the excessive use of.....from farmers. In other words, human.....is harmful for endangered species.

Fortunately, there are some measures that can be taken to prevent endangered species from becoming totally..... More specifically, strict laws should be established and implemented for punishment of illegal hunters and they should receive harsh.....The Government should do what they can to prevent wild animals from being.....uncontrollably. Furthermore, people should become.....at a local nature reserve or campaign. By doing this, they can.....money in the protection of endangered species. In addition, people should promotedevelopment, that is development that does affect negatively the environment. This can be achieved by fighting pollution and reducing our Finally we should try to raise environmental which is the solution to all problems

4th HIGH SCHOOL OF VOLOS

GOOD LUCK!