

A: Can I take your drink order?

B: I heard that you are famous for your smoothies. What are your specials?

A: The smoothies are posted on the little board over there.

B: Where is your juice menu list?

B: Do you have any smoothies with pineapple?

A: We can make a number of pineapple smoothies at the bar.

A: Our house special is Vitamin C blast. It has orange, pineapple, and apple juice.

A: Okay, so a Vitamin C blast smoothie, thin.

B: Yes, please a thin smoothie, not a thick smoothie.

B: I prefer my smoothie with a lot of water.

A: Can I prepare your drink with a little water, some water, or a lot of water?

B: I would love a Vitamin C blast right now! That is what I am going to

Reading Comprehension

1. Where is the menu with all the drinks?
2. The barista says, "The smoothies are posted on the board..."

What is "posted" on the board mean?

3. What kind of fruit does the customer want in their smoothie?
4. What is the juice bar famous for?
5. What does the barista suggest to the client?
6. What does "thin" and "thick" mean?
7. Does customer want a little water or a lot of water in their smoothie?
9. What drink does the customer order?

Memorize and practice the dialogue