

Instructions: Type the nouns from the table under the correct columns below.

C: Activity 2

Instructions: Fill in the blanks with the nouns in Exercise B.

'The Selfish Giant' is a story by In the story, the Selfish Giant returns from visiting his, the Cornish On his return, he sees a of playing in the garden. He gets angry and throws them out into the streets. The children do not like playing in the streets as they are full of hard the Selfish Giant is so unkind, that the seasons stop visiting his garden. So, the stop blossoming there. One day, some children enter the Giant's garden and climb up the trees. When he hears their, his heart is filled with

Part 2: Listening

Objective: students will listen to a recording to infer meaning and conclusions from specific information and details.

Recording:

A: True or False

Instructions: listen to an excerpt of the story 'The Selfish Giant', from the textbook, unit 1. Write True or False next to the statements below.

1. In Spring, children had lots of fun playing in the Selfish Giant under the blossoming trees and singing birds.
2. The North Wind was invited to the garden by the Snow and the Frost.
3. The Snow and the Frost did not like Spring.
4. The Hail was invited to the garden by the North Wind.
5. The writer uses in this story PERSONIFICATION whereas the wind, snow, and hail act like people.
6. The Hail was dressed in black and his health was like an ice cream.