

Ping	to make a short, sharp sound, 2. to send an email or text message
Prestigious	a machine that uses the energy from liquid fuel or steam to produce movement
Launch	1. start, 2. an occasion when a ship is put into water, or a spacecraft is sent into space, for the first time;
Tinker	to make small changes to something, especially in an attempt to repair or improve it;
Engine	the activity of flying aircraft, or of designing, producing, and keeping them in good condition;
Path	an aircraft that has long fixed wings and no engine and flies by gliding;
Glider	very much respected and admired, usually because of being important
Aviation	1. to say that something is true, even though there is no definite proof, 2. to say that someone's actions are the cause of something, especially in a court of law. 3. to say that something is yours, especially as a right
Claim	a route or track between one place and another, or the direction in which something is moving;