

Gerund and Infinitive Worksheet

Question one: Choose the correct answer:

1. I remember meeting/ to meet your sister at primary school.
2. You should stop eating/ to eat sweets.
3. Don't forget bringing/ to bring your dictionary.
4. Did you remember to ask/ asking your brother for his DVD?
5. I need to focus on having / to have fun.
6. Taking/ to take part in competitions make me feel good.
7. Don't waste time watching/ to watch TV.
8. The teacher wants us to finish/ finishing out projects this weekend.
9. Why don't you stop buying/ to buy so many computer games?
10. I promised to help/ helping my mother with the housework.

Question two: Type the correct gerund or infinitive forms of the verb in parentheses into the blank.

Oh, those "good old days." Sometimes, I want to be a teenager again! I still remember (watch) movies like The Breakfast Club and (talk) on the phone for hours. I didn't work in my teens. I had many years ahead of me for (work). My friends were different. It surprised me (learn) that they wanted (be) older, and they wanted (have) more responsibility. I never did! Well, those great times are gone. Ever since my twentieth birthday many years ago, I have been working full time (pay) my bills and (take) care of my family. (Get) older has had some good points, however. I have learned (listen) to other people and (respect) ideas and opinions that are different from mine.