IDIOMS IN SPEAKING

❖ Substitute, in place of the underlined word or words, the corresponding idiomatic expression partially indicated in parentheses.

1. The man finally went insane. (out of _____)

_____

2. He had one glove on with the inside turned toward the outside. (inside____)

_____

3. He exhausted his supply of money and had to return home. (run ____)

_____

4. The plates were placed on the table with upper side turned toward the bottom. (upside _____)

_____

5. Both brothers have been without work for months. (out of _____)

_____

6. Regardless of how often I correct him, he always makes the same mistake. (no_____)

_____

7. What course do you plan to undertake in college? (take ____)

_____

8. Our personnel office asked me to complete one of their application forms. (fill ____)

_____

9. John likes to travel and, in this, he resembles his Uncle Bill. (take ___)

_____

10. Divorce is a matter you must consult a lawyer about. (take ___)

_____

UNCLE KARTA ENGLISH CORNER

LIVEWORKSHEETS