

Passive voice 11

a) Read these sentences; they have been extracted from a real text:

The government must take immediate action to get people back to work.

There has been a review into the way they are reporting the statistics.

The TUC is calling for them to extend the Job Retention Scheme.

They have removed around 730,000 people from company payrolls between March and the end of July.

Analysts expect UK output has plunged by more than a fifth between April and June.

b) What do you think the original text was? Click on the right option.

a novel    a newspaper report    an opinion essay    a personal letter

c) Those sentences were in the passive voice in the original text. Rewrite them in the passive.

The government must take immediate action to get people back to work.

There has been a review into the way they are reporting the statistics.

The TUC is calling for them to extend the Job Retention Scheme.

They have removed around 730,000 people from company payrolls between March and the end of July.

Analysts expect UK output has plunged by more than a fifth between April and June.