

REVIEW “Memory”

1a. Complete the sentences with the correct form of have + object + past participle.

- 1) My teeth hurt, so I decided to (check).
- 2) We (weekend spoil) by his bad behavior.
- 3) Maria (job application not accept).
- 4) Have you ever (heart break)?

1b. Complete the sentences with the correct form of have + object + verb or -ing.

- 1) I (not/smoke) in my house!
- 2) We (our old dishwasher/remove/the council).
- 3) A Mr Jones is here.
B (wait) in reception for five minutes.
- 4) After just a few kilometres, we (pour smoke) out of the engine.

2. Write a report of the manager’s speech using the verbs in brackets.

The manager emphasized ...

‘Our staff are really committed, (¹ emphasize), and I would like to say congratulations in particular to Jon because he has been accepted by the head office training academy (² compliment). I really think all personnel should apply to the academy for extra training (³ urge). In the coming year, the company will fight for every last customer (⁴ assert), although I know that market conditions are very tough and the task will be difficult’ (⁵ acknowledge).

3. Complete the sentences with over, down or off.

- 1) Her office is the corridor on the right.
- 2) I'd better eat this cheese before it goes
- 3) They fell out a trivial accident.
- 4) There's 40% this week on all winter coats.
- 5) Of course there are long delays, and it's all to a lack of planning.
- 6) His girlfriend broke up with him last year and he's not yet.
- 7) Was the computer on or when you left?
- 8) The network will be for an hour for routine maintenance.
- 9) It's fascinating to watch how a baby changes and develops time.
- 10) Tomorrow's game has been cancelled because of the bad weather.
- 11) Do you have it on paper, or was it just a verbal agreement?

