

someone who performs music in a public place, usually on the street, for money where people buy and sell second-hand items such as records, books, stamps, etc.

informal word for a live concert at a concert, the place where the band sell their T-shirts, posters, CDs, etc.

audio files that you can copy from your computer

a website that sells music

we listened to these before CDs and MP3 files just one song or piece of music will/ won't	may/ may not	can/ can't might/ might not	would/ wouldn't	should/ shouldn't

Use

Modal verbs add information to the verb.
Different modals add different information.

Modal verb	Use
(4)	to talk about the future
(5) (6)	to say something is possible, but you aren't sure
(7)	to talk about ability, possibility and permission in the present
(8)	to make recommendations
(9)	to talk about imaginary situations