

PORTEL 4 p. 58-59

1. Mary didn't hear the [announcement / recommendation / arrangement] and missed her flight.
2. My throat is so sore that I can't eat. I can only drink [slight / liquids / highly].
3. The computer works [properly / slightly / originally] now.
4. I like easy recipes that don't need much [explanation / examination / preparation].
5. The [development / measurement / advantage] of our business is quite slow.
6. I missed my [development / reduction / connection], because my first flight was delayed and had to wait a whole day for another flight.
7. Since they closed the nearby airport, there has been a(n) [introduction / reservation / reduction] in noise in my neighbourhood.
8. The class was sad to hear about the [cancellation / recommendation / departure] of the trip to Tuscany.
9. A pilot must know how to fly different types of [luggage / aircraft / aisles].
10. My father made all the [arrangements / aisles / presents] for our trip to Australia.
11. When I drive, I never forget to [proceed / scale / fasten] my seat belt.
12. Please [proceed / hire out / announce] slowly to the exit of the building.
13. Are you sure you need to take all that [boarding passes / baggage / scales] with you?

14. I weighed my bags on the [scales / gates / boarding passes] at home to be sure they weren't too heavy.

15. On his last day of work, Chris collected his personal [improvements / reservations / belongings] and said goodbye to his co-workers.

16. Can you please give me a(n) [explanation / participation / introduction] of what you mean?

17. Frank didn't have much [aisles / luggage / connection] on his trip to France; only one bag.

18. Watching the flight attendant slowly bring the food down the [aisle / luggage / aircraft] makes me feel hungry.

19. Oliver [improved / arranged / reserved] a table for five at nine o'clock at Angelo's Italian Restaurant.

20. He made the [recommendation / reservation / introduction] that we shouldn't visit that part of town.