Paul:

Our boys won. They always win when they play against the Pirates.

What are you doing then if you are bored?

Then stop listening, and find something else to do. Watch a new film. It may be interesting.

Yes, they are good football players.

No, I don't.

I know they always play well.

I am listening to music.

I have listened to it for an hour and

I have not heard a new song. They are all the same.

Dad, do you know that two of my friends played in the game?

But we don't have any new films.

And all the old films that we have are boring!
