The WORKSHEET

A. Put the verbs in brackets into Present Perfect or Past Simple.

Dear Lydia,

I'm writing to tell you all the latest family news. Aunt Daisy..... (have) a baby girl a week ago. Uncle Nick is very pleased. They.....(name) the baby Louise. Uncle Bruce ..... (buy)a new car and he ..... (give) the old one to Aunt Celia.Do you remember my cousin Rupert? Well, he ..... (move) to Germany last month. He ..... (take) his wife and children with him. Grandpa ..... (take) Alex on a fishig trip last weekend. Unfortunately, they ..... (not/ catch) any fish!

Grandma ..... (recently/ redecorate) the living room. She ..... (paint) the walls pink and ..... (buy) a new carpet to match. It looks lovely.

That's all for now. Take care and write soon with your news.

Love,

Mum

B. Choose the correct option.

1. I love New York. I was / have been there many times.
2. I went / have gone to Hawaii for a vacation last year.
3. Fred and Wilma moved / have moved to Germany after they got married.
4. My brother lived / has lived in San Francisco since he got a job there.
5. Our team won / has won three games so far this month.
6. Lucas fixed / has fixed the car, so you can use it now.
7. Have you met / Did you meet our new history teacher yet?
8. Don't wait Sarah, she has gone/ went shopping.
9. The train didn't arrive / hasn't arrived yet we are all waiting for it.
10. They didn't fix / haven't fixed the elevator yet, we have to use the stairs.

C. Find and correct the mistakes.

1. Have you ever organize a party?

2. My friend has visited Eiffel Tower already.

3. My brother not passed his Literature exam.

4. We have gone to Egypt in 2019.

5. They still have played volleyball at school.

D. Use the cues to write sentences into Simple Past or Present Perfect.

1. My sister/ already / have five children.

2. My niece / become a father again / three years ago.

3. She / buy a car / last year.

4. My brother / not have a little son / yet.