PRESENT SIMPLE OR CONTINUOUS?

Fill in the verb in the simple or continuous form in the right tense.

HAVE

a) Shirley _____ a difficult time right now.

b) We _____ a barbecue on Saturday night, if you want to come over.

c) I _____ a problem with it. (not have)

d) We _____ breakfast when the doorbell rang.

SEE

a) I _____ the ocean from my bedroom window.

b) Ross and Rachel make a great couple. How long _____ (they / see) each other?

c) Is Mike at work? – Yes, I _____ him a few minutes ago.

d) I _____ my dentist tomorrow morning.

THINK

a) I _____ Olivia is Canadian but I am not sure.

b) Brenda _____ (think) I'm still a child.

c) He _____ of asking her out.

d) I really miss my friends; I _____ of visiting them next week. Would you like to come, too?

MEAN

a) I _____ to hurt you. I'm sorry. (not mean)

b) I don't understand the word 'aint'. What _____ (it/mean)?

c) Don't be mad at Mark. You know he _____ (not mean) it when he said those rude words.

d) That wasn't what I _____.

LOOK

a) Where is mum? – She _____ at the paintings.

b) Phoebe _____ very pretty today.

c) When the little boy disappeared, the whole town _____ for him.

d) He _____ bored.

TASTE

a) This medicine _____ bitter

b) The milk _____ sour, so I threw it away.

c) The chef _____ the speciality he made.

d) We _____ the most delicious cheeses for about an hour

SMELL

a) The roses you had last summer in your garden _____ lovely.

b) These flowers _____ terrific.

c) What is she doing? – She _____ the perfume before she makes a decision whether tobuy it or not.

d) Why _____ you _____ the milk? – I think, it went bad.

FEEL

a) I _____ not _____ well. I think, I'll go home.

b) She is not longer in hospital; she _____ strong and healthy again.

c) I _____ you should apologise.

d) the water _____ cold.