

1 Read the sentences. Write the instructions and advice in the table.

Put on a hat.
You should take water with you.
Read the instructions first.
You should take water and something to eat.
Don't be late!
You should return before sunset.
Take your boots, don't hurt your feet.

Instructions	Advice
Put on a hat.

2 Read and choose the correct words to complete the rules.

- 1 To express instructions, we can use the verb / should.
- 2 To express advice, we can use the verb / should.
- 3 We form negative instructions with don't + verb / verb + not.

3 Write the words in the correct order.

- 1 put / boots / You / on / for / should / the / hike.
- 2 phone / mobile / You / a / take / should.
- 3 other / Help / each.
- 4 for / We / look / should / a / hospital.

1
2
3
4

4 Read and think. Then choose the correct words to complete the rules.

I hurt myself .	We are helping ourselves .
Enjoy yourself .	Enjoy yourselves !
He cut himself . She hit herself . The dog/It hurt itself .	They are teaching themselves .

We can phone each other. We want to see each other again.

- 1 We add -self to I, you, he, she, it / my, your, him, her, it. We add -selves to we, they / our, them.
- 2 We use words like himself when someone does something to himself / someone else.
- 3 We use each other when someone does something to himself / someone else.

5 Read and circle the correct word.

- 1 Who gave you / yourself that hat?
- 2 We looked at us / ourselves in the photo.
- 3 She taught herself / each other to dance.
- 4 We talked to ourselves / each other on the phone.
- 5 Tell the group leader if someone hurts himself / yourself.

Grammar: giving instructions and advice

To give instructions, we can use the verb. We form negative instructions with don't + verb.

To express advice, we can use should.

Grammar: -self and each other

We add -self to my, your, his, her, it and -selves to our, them.

We use words ending in -self / -selves when someone does something to himself / herself.

We use each other when someone does something to someone else.