Read very carefully through the following passage, and then place commas (,) where needed.

Our neighbor Patrick has fruit trees on his property. “Patrick what kinds of fruits do you grow?” I asked. Well I grow peaches apricots pears and plums” he replied. “Wow! That’s quite a variety I said. Patrick’s son Johnathan helps his son care for the trees, “Oh it’s constant work and care” Johnathan said “but the delicious results are worth the effort.” After harvesting the fruit Jonathan’s mother Allison cans the fruit for use throughout the year. She makes preserves and gives them as gifts for special occasions. Allison sells some of her preserves to Chris Simon the owner of a local shop. People come from all over the county to buy Allison’s preserves.
