

The Robinsons

adventures fresh cave happy hunt survive storm characters ship lessons trees tools leave vegetables novel island learn travel

The Swiss Family Robinson is a _____ by Johann David Wyss. It's a very exciting story. The main _____ are a mother and father and their four sons, Fritz, Ernest, Jack and Franz. The family decides to _____ to a new country to live. They travel on a _____ with lots of other people, but there is a big _____. The ship sinks, but the family swims to an island. There aren't any other people on the island, so the family is alone.

They take things from the _____, such as clothes and _____, to help them start a new life. The family has lots of _____ on the island and they _____ a lot of important _____.

They find out that the island has everything they need to _____. First, they use wood from the _____ to build a house in a tree. When the weather is cold and wet, they move to a _____ and make a home there.

They grow _____ and fruit from seeds and they _____ animals for their meat. They use salt to keep their meat _____ for a long time, so they are never hungry. They cook food on a fire and they use plants to make paper and clothes. They learn a lot about nature and they enjoy their life on the _____.

One day, they have the chance to _____ the island and go home to Switzerland, but they decide that the island is their home now. They are _____ with their new life and they don't want to leave.