

C Grammar

Make sentences with must have or can't have as in the example.

Example : I rang her but there was no answer. (go out)
She must have gone out.

1 I could hear her voice in the bedroom. (go out)

2 He didn't call me on my birthday. (forget)

3 She didn't say hello to me. (see)

4 They only stayed for five minutes. (be in a hurry)

5 She looked very upset. (pass her exam)

6 He went to sleep at eight in the evening. (be exhausted)

7 Their house looked freshly-painted. (repaint)

8 She's bought a Rolls-Royce. (win the lottery)

D Rephrase the following sentences as in the example. Use may, might could, must or can't plus have.

Example : I'm sure she's gone out.
She must have gone out.

1 Perhaps he has read the book already.

2 It's possible that she has failed the exam.

3 I'm sure she didn't want to hurt you.

4 Perhaps he has returned from America.

5 I'm sure he was the murderer.

6 I'm sure she didn't like him.

7 Perhaps he went there alone.

8 It's possible that he saw the film last week.

E Fill in the gaps with must, can't or might.

1 He.....have been at home because his phone was engaged.

2 He.....have gone out; he had a cold.

3 He.....not have heard the doorbell.

4 He.....have preferred to be alone.

5 There.....have been someone with him.

6 He.....have known it was me because I hadn't told him I would be going.

7 He.....have been afraid to open the door in the middle of the night.

8 Hehave gone to sleep immediately, because I couldn't see any lights.