

p. 70-71

1. The cricket player ran across the [nature / pitch / match].
2. I'm usually at home in the evenings, so you can [come by / work out / sum up] any evening so we can catch up.
3. I need a holiday to [unwind / remind / appeal] from my stressful year at work.
4. I decided to have my birthday party in [minimum / the open / conclusion] this year. I will either have it at the park or at the zoo.
5. Ellen [dropped in / socialised / reminded] to see me but I missed her because I was at the gym.
6. We [appeal / aged / socialise] a lot. Our house is always full of people.
7. Alice is [mad about / signed up / in charge of] the sports equipment and makes sure it is all returned at the end of the training.
8. I asked Richard to [have a passion / unwind / remind] me to call my friend Charles this weekend.
9. [Individual / Appealing / Outing] dance lessons are usually expensive.
10. There's [no point in / signing up / dropping in] inviting her to the wedding the day before. I wouldn't come if I were invited at the last minute, either.
11. Henry's new book sounds very [unfair / appealing / overall]. I'd like to read it.
12. The dangerous [nature / outing / taste] of rock climbing means that you have to be careful and pay attention at all times.
13. The [casual / minimum / irregular] time you have to spend on this activity is 20 minutes.

14. He became a chef because he has [a passion for / taken control of / was blown away] cooking.

15. If you [are after / taste / are mad about] a relaxing holiday, go to this hotel, which is a very quiet place and also has a pool.

16. How about going on a(n) [outing / pitch / nature] to the seaside?

17. The [rest / use / stage] of mobile phones in the exam is prohibited.

18. The youth club [drops in / runs / aged] many programmes that teach young people new skills.

19. Alan wants to [drop in / sign up / come by] for the computer course. How much are the fees?

20. Carl is [driven wild / mad about / taking part] football; it's all he thinks about every day.