

1. The company didn't [make a profit / exist / get rid of] this year and Ray is very worried.
2. –Is Stela still at work? – I [suppose / note / exist] so. She's not at home.
3. When I named my company, I checked that the name was not similar to [apparent / supposing / existing] company names.
4. Please [suppose / exist / note] that the school will be closed for two weeks during the Christmas holidays.
5. The fire [apparently / widely / highly] started in this house and we could see the smoke rising as high as the eye can see.
6. The hike has been cancelled [due to / loads of / from start to finish] the rain.
7. When the bookshop closed down, Jackie [made a profit / lost her job / got rid of].
8. Christine [got rid of / supposed / noted] all the unwanted papers on her desk.
9. Do you have the [notes / figures / developments] for our profits this year?
10. Aren't you hungry? Well, I'm thinking about [getting caught / being on the news / placing an order] for two pepperoni pizzas.
11. My local coffee shop [shut / got rid of / appealed] and now the nearest one is 2km away!
12. Roger couldn't [figure / concentrate / destroy] during the test, because he had a very bad headache.
13. Al enjoys [strolling / exchanging / completing] in the park every day after work.
14. I'm so happy my studies are [defective / over / around]. Now I can go on holiday!

15. When people started streaming films and watching them online, it lead to the [death / stroll / profit] of shops where you could hire the DVDs.

16. You can try on those trousers in the [fitting room / venue / stage].

17. There was a beautiful field here with apple trees [when / in the old days / once], before they build the shopping centre.