Last summer holidays, Sara visited her friend Maha in Oman. She arrived on Saturday morning. She decided to stay with her in her house. She did many exciting things with her. Early on Sunday morning, Sara and Maha went on a boat trip to see the dolphins in Musandam. Sara took a lot of photos. On Monday morning, they visited Nizwa Fort. It was fantastic! In the afternoon, they went shopping and Sara bought some postcards for her friends and family.

The day after that, Tuesday, they drove up to Jebel Al-Khdar. It was amazing. They saw a helicopter taking food and materials to the villages at the top of the mountain. The most exciting part of the holidays was the next day, Wednesday. Maha's brother Ali took them to the desert to see the camels. There, they had a real adventure. After two weeks, Sara returned to America. It took two days to travel back home. Sara loved her visit to Oman, and she wished to visit it again someday.
