

Season1. Ep1. Lesson 3.

Scene 1.

John : What are you doing?

Sherlock : Nicotine patch. _____.

Impossible to sustain a smoking habit in London these days.

Bad news for brain work.

John : It's good news for breathing.

Sherlock : Oh...Breathing! Breathing's boring.

John : Is that...three patches?

Sherlock : It's a three-patch problem.

John : Well...? You _____ come, I'm assuming it's important.

Sherlock : Oh - yeah, of course. Can I borrow your phone?

John : My phone?

Sherlock : Always a chance that my number will be recognised.

It's _____.

John : Mrs Hudson's got a phone.

Sherlock : Yeah, she's downstairs.

I _____ but she didn't hear.

1. sustain :

2. breathe :

3. assume :

4. recognise :

Scene 2.

Sally : Are these human eyes?

Sherlock : Put those back!

Sally : They were in the microwave.

Sherlock : It's an experiment.

Lestrade : Keep looking, guys. Or you could help us properly and I'll _____.

Sherlock : This is childish.

Lestrade : Well, I'm _____ a child. Sherlock, this is our case.
I'm letting you in, but you do not go off on your own. Clear?

Sherlock : What - so you set up a pretend drugs bust to bully me?

Lestrade : It stops being pretend _____ anything.

Sherlock : I am clean!

Sally : Is your flat...? All of it?

Sherlock : Don't even smoke.

Lestrade : Neither do I. So let's work together. We've found Rachel.

Sherlock : Who is she?

Lestrade : Jennifer Wilson's only daughter.

Sherlock : Her daughter? Why would she write her daughter's name? Why?

5. microwave :

6. childish :

6. pretend :

7. drug bust :

8. bully :