

VIDEO COMPREHENSION 3

Watch the video and write the order in which you hear these ideas:

The weather changes all the time.

It can be cold when you wake up in summer.

At lunchtime in summer, it can feel cool.

Lots of British people watch the weather reports every day.

It snowed a lot in spring 2013.

It's likely to rain if you visit Britain.

British people always try to enjoy themselves whether the weather is good or bad.

Moscow is colder than Newcastle.

Watch it again and fill in the gaps:

- a) Also, _____ you are very lucky, if you visit the UK, it _____ probably rain at least _____ during your stay.
- b) The main thing is that the weather in the UK _____ all the time so if you visit, _____ clothes for every kind of _____.
- c) You'll _____ up in the morning and it'll be cold. Then if you wait until lunchtime, it _____ just feel cool. Then, if you are lucky, it _____ be warm and _____ in the afternoon, but then _____ and windy in the evening. And maybe, even _____ at night.
- d) The Gulf Stream means that the UK's _____ is mild; it's never very _____ and it's never very _____.
- e) If you try to _____ the weather in the UK, you'll usually _____ wrong.
- f) If the sun _____, people will be _____ all day on the beach or on the street. And if it _____, they'll go sledging or _____ a snowman. Even if it _____, British people _____ take shelter and stay inside. They _____ still go out walking or for a bike ride.
