

Who invented the Internet?

The Internet is a series of interconnected systems that work together. True False

Who proposed a World Wireless System in the 1900's? a) Tim Berners-Lee
b) Nikola Tesla c) Elon Musk

What did Tesla build to send messages from the US to England?

- a) He built a weather station.
- b) He built a space station.
- c) He built a wireless station.

Where and when did the Internet start to take shape? _____

The Advanced Research Projects Agency (ARPA) needed a way for.....

- a) all their separate computers could communicate.
- b) all their separate computers could share information.
- c) all their separate computers could be one.

Who took the Internet to the next level and created the World Wide Web?

- a) Tim Berners-Lee
- b) Nikola Tesla
- c) Elon Musk

