

INFINITIVE AND GERUNDS

SEVENTH LEVEL

MISS: DIANY

We use INFINITIVES after the next verbs: want, need, plan, learn, use, try, ask, hope, remember, forget, offer, promise, etc. and expressions such as would like and would love.

We use GERUNDS after the next verbs: like, dislike, love, enjoy, hate, etc. and after prepositions: in, at, on, for, about, etc.

ACT. 1 Complete the next sentences with an infinitive or gerund.

- a. I will try.....(win) the next time.
 - b. I am sure you will enjoy.....(spend) time with us.
 - c. They really hate.....(play) alone in the park.
 - d. Mary would like.....(share) time with the class.
 - e. Dillan is good at.....(fix) machines.

 - f. Alegria is interested in.....(protect) wild animals.
 - g. I promise.....(clean) my room.
 - h. She would love.....(go) to Paris on her vacations.
 - i. Sorry, I forgot.....(bring) cake for the party.
 - j. My mom dislikes.....(watch)TV at night.

 - k. Sophie hates.....(cook) vegetables.
 - l. It is time for.....(study). I cannot rest anymore.
 - m. My teacher likes.....(grade) homework.
 - n. I want.....(be) the new president of my class.
 - o. They did not learn.....(use) simple past.

 - p. My friends hope.....(be) elected as representatives of my school.
 - q. I am sure John would love.....(taste) delicious cakes.
 - r. I have enjoyed.....(paint) with different colors.
 - s. You are asking me for.....(help) you as you do all the time.
 - t. We need(get) a better idea
-
- 