

- 1) Vikings
- 2) John Cabot
- 3) Jacques Cartier
- 4) Jean Nicollet
- 5) Syrup
- 6) Governor Frontenac

His quick thinking held off an attack of British troops near the Beauport Shore

French explorer sailing under the expense of the French Crown

First Europeans to visit the continent

First harvested by the First Nations

Encouraged further exploration of this "New World" and its land by other explorers

When he met their chief Donnacona, and asked him for the name of this country, Donnacona replied "kanata" meaning village and lands.

By thwarting the British attack, he allowed French culture to develop deeply in Canada

In search of a route from Europe to Asia through North America

Sailed into the Bay of Gaspé and met the group of Haudenosaunee people near Stadaconé, Québec