

Mahatma Gandhi

How was Gandhi as a kid?

- a) He was very shy and introverted.
- b) He was very sociable and playful.
- c) He was shy, but he had many friends.

What age did Gandhi's parents marry him to Kasturba?

- a) 12 years-old b) 13 years-old
- c) 14 years-old

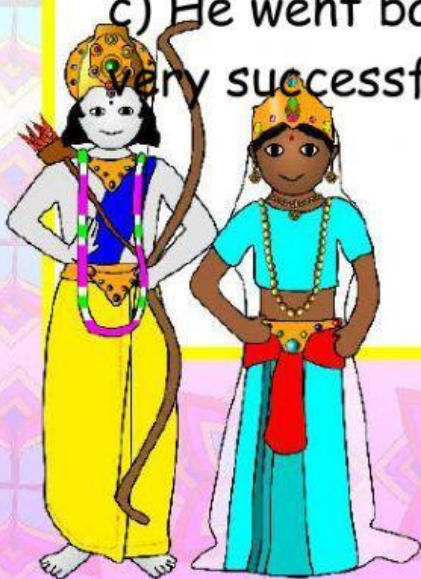

Where did Mohandas go to study university? _____

Why did he give up dressing and trying to look like an Englishman?

- a) Because he realized it was too expensive.
- b) Because he realized he was not British.
- c) Because he realized clothes would not change the person.

What happened when he completed his studies in England?

- a) He worked as a lawyer in England.
- b) He worked some time in India and then he moved to South Africa.
- c) He went back to India where he was a very successful lawyer in Bombay.

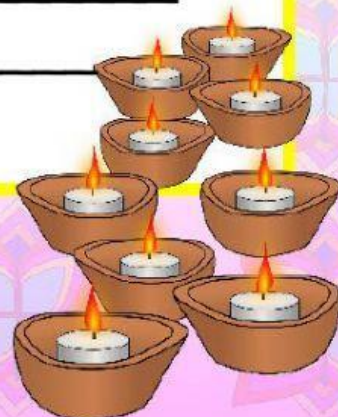

What was his experience in Durban, South Africa? a) He realized there was racism and discrimination for not being white.
b) a) He realized there was racism and discrimination for not being rich.
c) a) He realized there Indians were not welcomed.

What did Mohandas decide to do after the terrible event on the train?
a) He sailed back to India.
b) He stayed for 20 years helping Indians fight the British, even if it meant being in jail.
c) He stayed working as a lawyer and helping fight everyone's civil rights.

What did he achieve in South Africa?

What did Gandhi do when he returned to India? a) He traveled around the country to understand people's problems.
b) He traveled on holidays.
c) He helped poor people.

What was Gandhi's idea of fighting for people's rights? _____

What did Gandhi do when people were protesting violently?
a) Gandhi fasted for many days and prayed.
b) Gandhi scolded them and was mad.
c) Gandhi fasted and was quite angry.

During the Salt March, Gandhi and his followers openly defied the British law against making salt.

What was the consequence of this March?

- a) People felt empowered even if they were arrested.
- b) People felt guilty for disobeying the British law.
- c) People felt sad and angry.

Finally, after defeating the British, what problem came out?

- a) Muslims and Hindus broke the country in two.
- b) Muslims and Sikhs broke the country in two.
- c) Hindus and Sikhs broke the country in two.

How did Gandhi die? _____

