

SB p.36-37

Lead-in:

1) How often do you visit museums? (1p.)

2) Do you prefer specialist museums or general museums? Why? (1p)

3) Name any famous museums in your own country or other countries.(1p)

1 Read the article and answer the questions.

1 What things should national museums have in them? (2p)

2 What does the term 'encyclopaedic museum' mean? Do you know any? (2p)

2 Read the article again. Match paragraphs A-E to summaries 1-6. There is one summary that you do not need. (6p)

1 Examining pros and cons of encyclopaedic museums.
2 Speculating about how objects were acquired, and if they should be returned.
3 Describing an object which was a war trophy, and why it is unlikely to be given back.
4 Describing an object which was given away by one government, then asked to be returned by another.
5 Giving advice on which objects to view in the museum.
6 Exploring the purpose of museums, and a definition of an encyclopaedic museum.

VOCABULARY Insight Compounds with participles

! Compound adjectives are adjectives made of two or three words. They usually have a hyphen (-) between them.

Many compound adjectives have these patterns:

- adjective/adverb + Past Participle (ed or V3 e.g. well-educated^{ed}; well-known^{known});
- adjective/adverb + Present Participle (-ing e.g. never-ending^{ing})

but there are also some other patterns (see below):

3 Study the highlighted words in the article. What types of compounds are they? Write them down to the correct category. (6p)

Adjective + Past Participle	(1)
Adverb + Past Participle	(3)
Noun + Past Participle	(1)
Adjective + Present Participle	(1)
Adverb + Present Participle	(1)
Noun/pronoun + Present Participle	(2)

4 Complete the sentences choosing the right word. (8p)

1 The-anticipated exhibition had some-known Egyptian exhibits.

2 Some of the stories behind the photographs at the Magnum exhibition were-provoking. Others were simply breaking.

3 The nation made afelt plea for the return of its cultural heritage. A-respected museum had prepared a room to house the statues.

4 The Science Fair was-paced and impressive. The exhibits displayed lots of-blowing solutions to environmental problems.