

a. Underline the correct item.

- 1 He felt very angry/nervous about having his car stolen.
- 2 Peter was very generous/joyful to his friends when he won the lottery.
- 3 Due to the medication he was taking, he tended to be rather terrible/irritable.
- 4 Wendy is always very optimistic/astonished about the future.

Underline the correct item.

- 1 I hate this sad/dark/dull/dim weather; it makes me feel so depressed.
- 2 Our sense of touch/feel/contact/notice is very highly developed.
- 3 I would hate to miss/lose/fail/let my sense of humour.
- 4 Some people have no sense of danger/risk/hazard/threat.
- 5 She finds it difficult to tell/express/state/stress her feelings.

Use the correct form of the verbs in brackets together with the suitable preposition (up or down) to replace the parts in bold.

- 1 You should talk to people about your problems and not bottle things up. (open)
- 2 You need to have a couple of weeks holiday in order to relax completely. (wind)
- 3 Why don't you try to work less intensely and not get so stressed? (ease)
- 4 You should try to relax and enjoy yourself. (loosen)
- 5 Nothing I said could make him feel better; he was really depressed. (cheer)
- 6 Please try to control yourself and tell me what happened. (calm)
- 7 Eve's job is making her unhappy; She needs a change. (get)
- 8 I'm so sorry I disappointed you yesterday. I'll try to be more reliable in future. (let)

a. Fill in: white, quick, red, brown, quiet

1 as brown as a berry

2 as as a flash

3 as as a mouse

4 as as a sheet

5 as as a beetroot

English in Use

Find the unnecessary word in each sentence.

- 1 The teacher is always complains when we fail to do our homework on time.
- 2 I always feel stressed when I am about to take up an examination.
- 3 David and Liz are used to live in the city centre but have now moved to the suburbs.
- 4 Al set off earlier than usual so as not to avoid getting stuck in traffic.
- 5 Eve will have to get being used to working long hours at the office.
- 6 I think she is trying to hide from her true feelings.
- 7 The children were very disappointed when the trip was cancelled off.
- 8 Lyn is normally being very cheerful but today she seems to be very quiet.