Main Idea an	d Supporting Details
rag the details under the correct mai	in idea.
They will run, bark, and chase after sticks or balls.	They will purr when their backs are stroked.
They like to play with balls of yarn and will chase mice.	They are sometimes called man's best friend.
Cats can be nice pets.	Dogs can be very fine pets.
double rows of eyelashes, hairy ear ope All of these protect them from blowing They lose body water very slowly. They water.	the questions that follow. The property of the desert. They have a sand, and nostrils that can be closed down, a sand. Camels also store fat in their humps, and go for several days without any food or
Camels have special features that he double rows of eyelashes, hairy ear ope All of these protect them from blowing They lose body water very slowly. They water.	nelp them survive in the desert. They have nings, and nostrils that can be closed down. sand. Camels also store fat in their humps. can go for several days without any food or
Camels have special features that he double rows of eyelashes, hairy ear ope All of these protect them from blowing They lose body water very slowly. They water.	nelp them survive in the desert. They have nings, and nostrils that can be closed down. sand. Camels also store fat in their humps. can go for several days without any food or
Camels have special features that he double rows of eyelashes, hairy ear ope All of these protect them from blowing They lose body water very slowly. They water. What is the topic of this paragraph? Which sentence gives the main idea of the control of	nelp them survive in the desert. They have nings, and nostrils that can be closed down. sand. Camels also store fat in their humps. can go for several days without any food or the paragraph?
Camels have special features that he double rows of eyelashes, hairy ear ope All of these protect them from blowing They lose body water very slowly. They water. What is the topic of this paragraph?	nelp them survive in the desert. They have nings, and nostrils that can be closed down. sand. Camels also store fat in their humps. can go for several days without any food or the paragraph?