Have you ever been a tourist before?

Based on the information that you learned today, join a discussion with your teacher and classmates to discover if you have ever been a tourist before. After the discussion if you discover that you have been a tourist, in the lines below, write yes, explain which type of tourist you were and classify the type of tourist that you were.

However, if you have never been a tourist before, dream a little. In the lines provided below, create a dream vacation, after which, you will write the type of tourist you would be and then write the classification.
