

Camp Nowhere #1: Hair Today, Gone Tomorrow

Author: _____

Illustrator: _____

BEFORE YOU READ

Have you ever been to a camp or gone camping? _____ Describe what you would do if you camped in the woods for a day and a night. Include at least 3 details. _____

WHILE YOU READ

Look for these words. Write down the page number where you first see them. When you're finished, use context clues to match them with their meanings.

Context Clue = information you get by looking all around the word

page <input type="checkbox"/>	trudge	not allowed; forbidden
page <input type="checkbox"/>	banned	walk slowly
page <input type="checkbox"/>	glance	look quickly
page <input type="checkbox"/>	woodchuck	frown; have an angry-looking face
page <input type="checkbox"/>	scowl	a heavy, furry animal with short legs
page <input type="checkbox"/>	dangle	try to find the facts, find the truth
page <input type="checkbox"/>	investigate	hang or swing loosely

AFTER YOU READ

setting = where and when a story happens

Describe the setting of this book. Include at least 3 details. _____

Circle the answer: This story takes place in the past present future .

exposition = introduction to a story; gets you ready for the main story

In the exposition, you find out why the boys are at a camp. Explain: _____

In the exposition, you also find out how the boys feel about being at the camp. Write 2 sentences to describe how the boys feel. 1) The boys _____

2) _____

narrator = person telling the story or talking about the story as it is told

Who is the narrator of this story? _____

point of view (POV) = how the person telling the story sees things

CLUES: 1st person POV uses "I." 2nd person POV uses "you."

3rd person POV uses he, she, it or a name.

Circle the point of view of the narrator in this story: 1st 2nd 3rd

How do you know? _____