

Extra training

Listening Task 254

You will hear an interview with an environmentalist.
For statements 1 -7, choose 1, 2 or 3 to complete each statement correctly.
Press PLAY again to listen for the second time.

- 1. Paula thinks British people should be interested in the marine environment because ____.
1. they live on an island.
 2. it has a long coastline.
 3. it provides work.

- 2. The European Union ____.
1. has used the seas for waste disposal.
 2. has begun to tackle marine pollution.
 3. has listed the wildlife in British waters.

- 3. The concentration of chemicals in the sea ____.
1. has risen.
 2. will take time to decrease.
 3. is now at safe levels.

- 4. Oil spills are a problem because ____.
1. there are too many oil platforms.
 2. the risk cannot be reduced.
 3. they are difficult to deal with.

- 5. Plastic waste in the sea ____.
1. can be a significant danger to marine wildlife.
 2. has been reduced by recycling programmes.
 3. isn't as dangerous as other kinds of waste.

- 6. Paula suggests people get involved in beach cleaning campaigns ____.
1. to help record the amount of litter found on them.
 2. so that they can adopt a local beach.
 3. before the litter problem becomes irreversible.

- 7. According to Paula, going to a UK beach is ____.
1. good for your health.
 2. a good idea if you go to the right areas.
 3. a dangerous experience.

