A1-06 Grammar: A/an + adj + noun

Adjectives

1) We can use adjectives after the verb to be. In that case, we do not use "a / an".
- He is tall. -He is a tall.
- They are happy. -They are a happy.

2) We can also use the verb "to be + a/ an + adj. + noun" for specific descriptions in sigular. We do not use "a / an" in plural.
-He is a tall person. ✓ -They are ✗ good friends.
-She is a nice student. ✓ -Maria and Pedro are ✗ tall doctors.

A / AN

We use "a / an" with singular nouns, not with plural.
-He is an engineer. ✓ -They are ✗ teachers.
-She is a woman. ✓ -Al and Marc are ✗ students.

Complete with the correct form of the verb to be (am / is / are)

1. I a teacher.
2. they tall ?
3. My friend a teacher.
4. My parents in Tacna.
5. Your house big.
6. Your dogs cute.
7. Their friend a good student.
8. Their cars new.
9. his friends here?
10. his mother a doctor?

Choose ONE correct answer

a) He is a tall.
b) He is tall student.
c) He is a tall student.

a) She is a pretty.
b) She is pretty.
c) She is pretty engineer.

a) They are a good doctors.
b) They are goods.
c) They are doctors.

a) Maria is a doctor.
b) He is doctor.
c) He is good doctor.

a) Is he a good chef?
b) He is a good chef?
c) Is he chef?

Complete with the correct word

1. He is student. (a tall / tall)
2. Juan is a . (good friend/ good)
3. Carlos is . (architect / an architect)
4. Maria and Pedro are doctors. (good / a good)
5. Juan is a . (good / good friend)
6. My dogs are . (big/ bigs)
7. I have . (a big house/ big house)
8. Is he ? (a nice / nice)
9. Are they teachers? (a good / good)
10. They aren´t . (nurse/ nurses)