

Irregular verbs puzzle 4 – /-n/, /-d/

- a) Download this list of 100 irregular verbs.pdf
- b) Copy this list of verbs on a piece of paper. They all have some things in common, and some things which are different from others:
- blow – cost – cut – draw – fly – grow – hit – hurt – know – lay – let – pay – put – read – say – sell – set – shut – swear – tear – tell – throw – wear
- c) Use your piece of paper to classify them in 5 groups with the most similar type of irregularity.
- d) Now write the three forms of each verb IN ALPHABETICAL ORDER inside each group, and fill in the gaps in the example sentences with the correct form of one of the irregular verbs.
Count the number of verbs in each group and use the examples to help you find out the chart where you have to write them.

Group 1:

INFINITIVE	PAST	PARTICIPLE	EXAMPLE
			How much does this computer      ?
			Ow! I've      my finger!
			Exactly, you      the nail on the head.
			I've got a headache, my head      .
			Would you      me use your mobile?
			Could you      that in the fridge?
			Have you      this novel?
			We have to      some rules.
			Don't forget to      the door.

Group 2:

INFINITIVE	PAST	PARTICIPLE	EXAMPLE
			The wind has _____ all night.
			Can you _____ an eagle?
			These birds _____ south every winter.
			Money doesn't _____ on trees.
			Do you _____ how to boil an egg?
			Don't _____ litter in the street.

Group 3:

INFINITIVE	PAST	PARTICIPLE	EXAMPLE
			I _____ I have told you the truth.
			It is easy to _____ a sheet of paper.
			You have _____ that shirt for a week!

Group 4:

INFINITIVE	PAST	PARTICIPLE	EXAMPLE
			Could you _____ the table, please?
			I will _____ for the drinks.
			Sorry, what did you _____ ?

Group 5:

INFINITIVE	PAST	PARTICIPLE	EXAMPLE
			France _____ Louisiana to the USA.
			Have you ever _____ anyone a lie?