Describing a Product.

Match the riddles to the pictures:

1 It is a product that is circular shaped, and comes with a strap to make it possible for you to wear on your wrist. It is mainly built to tell time and has many different shapes and colours that can help you look stylish and elegant. What is it?

2 I come in different shapes and colours. I am a very important product for old people. It aids them in walking. What am I?

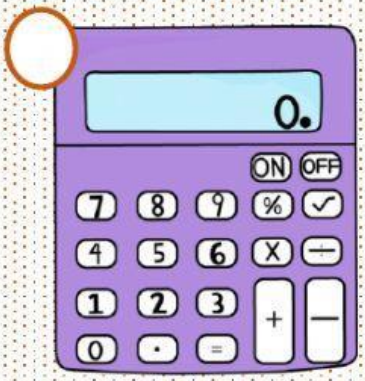

3 It is a product which helps people see better. It is made out of glass or plastic with a frame. Some people wear it to protect them from the sun or as an accessory.

4 It is a product that people use when they sleep and it comes in different colours and shapes and it is made of cotton.

5 It is rectangular. There is a lamp inside it. There are some goods in it which we can eat and drink.

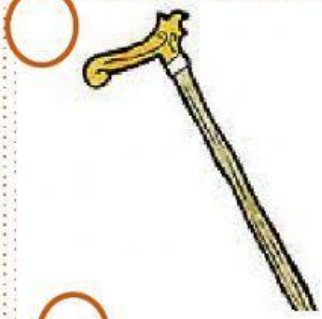

6 I come usually in a rectangular shape. I have a lot of numbers on me. I am a very important product for scientists. I help them in solving equations. What am I?

7 We use this product in our daily life. I helps us to get some information by using the internet and we can take pictures and record

These riddles have been written by some of Alhedaya School's students.

LIVEWORKSHEETS