In a lot of other classes, students don't g_____ on well with each other and they can be quite mean to their classmates. This so-called 'bullying' is a very s_____ problem. The introvert, s_____ students are always in danger. I hope they don't do this in my class because that would make me very sad. No matter if you have c_____ hair or s_____ hair, if you are a bit o_____ or just the right size, our personality is the most important.

I had amazing classmates both in primary and secondary school, and we always have a wonderful time when we meet. Of course, we are different now. Our faces are different, some of us have a b_____, others grew a m_____ above their mouth, but the feeling is the same. Although some of us have a bit less hair now, some are completely b_____, but whenever we meet, we are classmates again, laughing at old jokes and memories, and I hope that my kids will feel the same when they meet in 10, 15 or 20 years.
