Now Your Cooking

Do you ever help your parents prepare meals at home?

Before you begin:

- Never use the stove or a knife without an adult's supervision.
- Always remember to keep the handle of the skillet turned in so you cannot accidentally bump into it.

Tortilla Casserole

1 tablespoon vegetable oil
½ cup chopped frozen onion
½ green bell pepper, diced
1 14-ounce can diced tomatoes
½ cup bottled tomato salsa
½ teaspoon dried oregano
¾ teaspoon salt
2 15-ounce cans black beans, drained and rinsed
8 small corn tortillas
1 cup shredded Monterey Jack cheese
1 cup shredded cheddar cheese

1. Here are some other things you will need: a measuring cup, a teaspoon, a tablespoon, a cutting knife, a colander, a wooden spoon, a bowl, cooking spray, aluminum foil, a skillet, a spatula, and a large, oval baking dish.

2. First, preheat the oven to 350°F. Then, chop the green bell pepper. Place the oil, pepper, and onion in the skillet, and cook over medium heat. Sauté the vegetables for about five minutes.

3. Remove the skillet from the burner. Open both cans of beans, and place them in the colander. Rinse the beans in cool water, and drain well.

4. Add tomatoes, salsa, oregano, and salt to the skillet, and stir well. Next, add the beans to the mixture.

5. Coat the baking dish with cooking spray. Combine the two cheeses in a bowl. Then, spread one-third of the bean mixture on the bottom of the dish. Top with four tortillas, and sprinkle with one-third of the cheese. Now, add another layer of the bean mixture, four more tortillas, and another third of the cheese. Add the last layer of beans, and cover the dish with aluminum foil. Reserve the remaining cheese.

6. Bake the casserole for about 40 minutes. Then, remove the foil and add the remaining cheese. Put the casserole back in the oven, and bake it until the cheese topping is hot and bubbly. Allow the casserole to cool slightly before serving. This recipe makes six servings.
