

Drag the sentences below with their similar ones given.

She waited for the result with bated breath.

She was gifted in music and she studied the piano. She performed in musicals at high school.

She had a promising career and a bright future ahead.

McAuliffe reached for the stars and became a memorable figure in space history. She was only 37.

1. She was talented in music and she excelled in playing the piano.
2. She was likely to become very successful in the future.
3. She tried to do something very difficult and she became unforgettable.
4. She looked forward to the results in a very excited mood.