

Listen to your teacher and write.

1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.
7.
8.
9.
10.

Fill in the correct phrasal verb in the appropriate form.

back out – be down with – be up to – blow up – break down – break in – break off – break up

- Burglars _____ her flat and stole all her jewellery.
- The children are unusually quiet. I wonder what they _____.
- Mike _____ the flu; that's why he didn't come to work.
- Schools will _____ for Christmas on the 23rd of December.
- We were ready to go ahead with the plan but Paul _____ at the last minute.

Choose the correct answer.

- Are you _____ good terms with your cousin?
- I'm sorry. I took your phone _____ mistake.
- A lot of people are allergic _____ peanuts.
- The situation is _____ control so there's nothing to worry about.
- They accused him _____ stealing the money.
- We always go to my grandparents' house _____ Christmas Day.
- _____ the end, they decided to turn down his offer.
- She spoke _____ such a low voice that I could barely hear her.
- I don't believe _____ ghosts. Do you?
- It's wrong to take advantage _____ your friends.
- I'm really bad _____ geography because I can't remember names.
- Give me a ring when you arrive _____ the airport.
- Let me give you some advice _____ how to do it.
- I had no idea about the party. Everything had been organised _____ secret.
- You must apologise to her _____ your behavior!