COUNTABLES & UNCOUNTABLES

1.- Complete the table:

	countable nouns (plurals)	uncountable nouns
affirmative	There are some / a lot of books	There is some/ a lot of water negative	There_____any / many children.	There_____any / much water.
questions	How many books are there?	How much water is there?
	Are there any books?	Is there_____water?
short answers	Yes, there_____ No, there aren't	Yes, there_____ No, there isn't

2.- Complete these questions:

a.- How _____eggs do you eat a week?

I don't' eat_____eggs, I hate them.

b.-How_____sugar is there in your tea?

There_____any sugar, I don't like it.

c.-How _____milk is there?

There isn't_____milk. Only a little.

d.- How _____players are there in a basketball team?

There_____five players in our team.

lil

covid19 period

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3.- Which items are countable nouns (c) and which ones are uncountable nouns (uc):

batteries	c	a key ring
a cap		magazines
chewing gum		a mobile phone case
chocalate		nail varnish
hair gel		a purse
an ice cream		sweets
jewellery		water

4.-Choose the correct option:

In the west of Sidney , there's a fantastic market called Wall Lane Market. There are any / a lot of great shops. Look at this watch / purse I'm wearing. It's from the market. And this a new mobile phone case / batteries . There are / is a lot of Chinese restaurants. Try the tasty ice-cream / sweets - they're delicious. There isn't much / many traffic but any / some people ride bikes. It's a nice place for shopping , eating and just hanging out. And the best thing is you can come here when you haven't got some / any money. There are still a lot of / any things to see and do there.

LIVEWORKSHEETS