1: Select the subordinate clauses. They may come at the beginning or at the end of the sentence.

a)   On Sunday Farid had no school because it was a public holiday.

b)   After he finished his breakfast, he went down to the river.

c)   When he got to the river, he found some juicy fat prawns.

d)   While he was fishing, a huge fish jumped out of the water.

e)   He walked home at about noon before the day got too hot.

Act: 2 Select the suitable main clause rom the drop box.

a)   When they got to the boat, _____

b)   _____so they didn't fish there.

c)   _____while his father was asleep.

3: Match and join the main clauses to the subordinate clauses.

A	B
Farid lived in Pasni	• when he was only eleven years old.
His mother died	• so he often took Farid with him.
After Farid came to the village,	• before he came to the village.
Farid enjoyed these fishing trips	• he became interested in fishing.
While he was still at school,	• because he also wanted to become a fisherman.
His dad was a fisherman	• he started High School.